

'Kaddish'

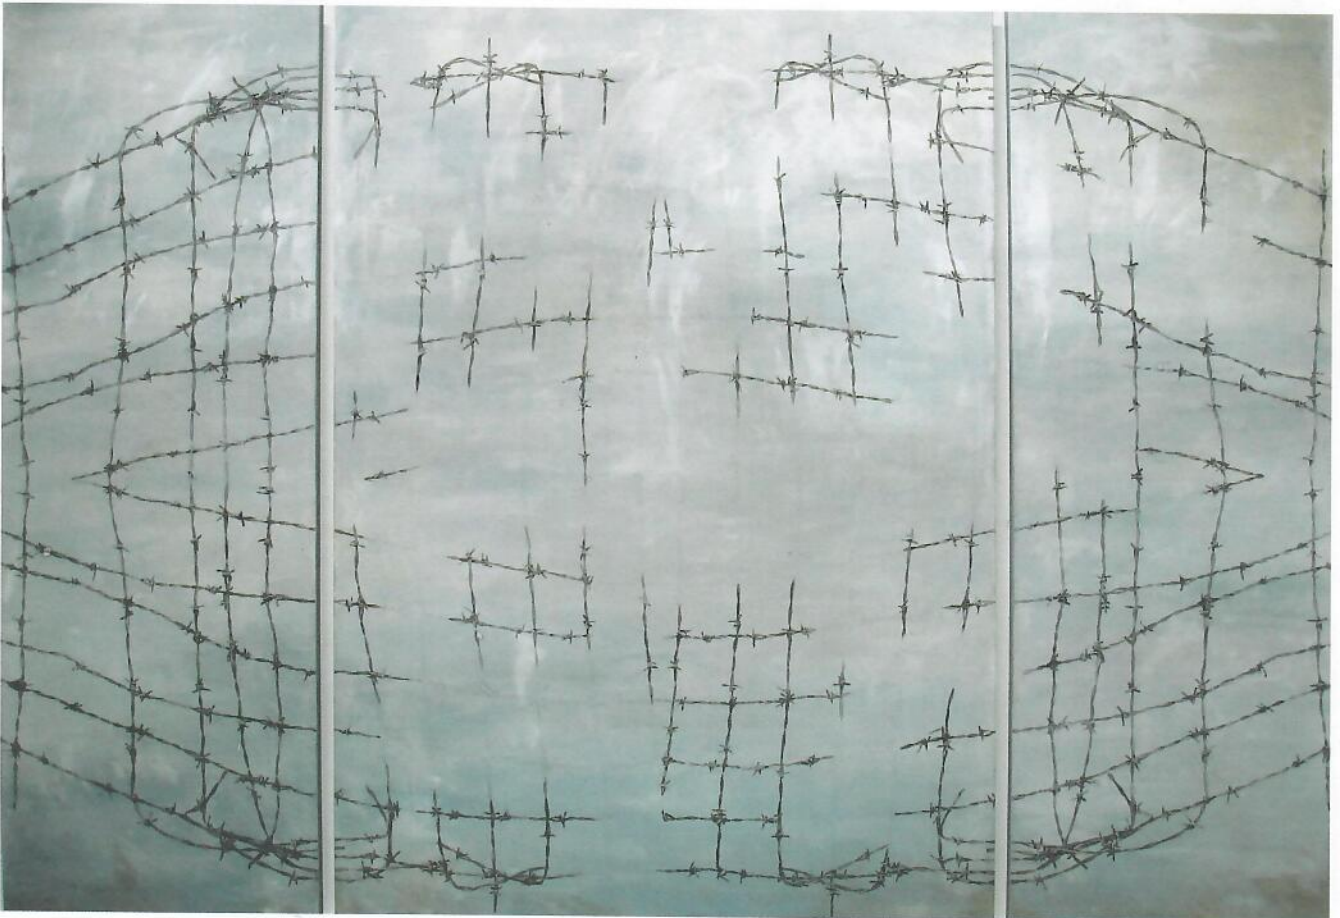

This work is dedicated to my grandfather Helmut Loeser [1899 to 1945] who died in Riga because he was Jewish and for whom Kaddish was never said.

Details of the work:

Tryptch. 96" x 68" mixed media on calico.

This work was originally conceived to have standing in front of it three slim white wooden plinths to canvas height.

A white oval stone to be placed on the left hand two plinths.
A small pile of white stones to be placed on the ground to the right of the right hand plinth.
It has never been exhibited in this form.

Please find attached my CV.

I would like to gift this work to an institution that honours the memory of this lost generation and that believes in hope and reconciliation.

I am unable to fund transportation but will willingly organise and oversee the same.

I am happy that copyright be gifted to the receiving institution on the proviso that the artist retains the ability to use the image in a professional non - profit making capacity i.e. on the artist's website or in published materials such as catalogues, articles or art magazines.
